

Tuesday 23rd June - Lesson 2

L.O. To explore different features of characters

In order to be a superhero we know that they have to have a power they can use. All good superheroes have character traits that encourage them to do good things. What character traits would you need to be a good superhero? Write some ideas below. I have given you a couple of examples.

brave

Now choose four character traits and add them to your superhero design.
