

IMPROVING SENTENCES

The car drove down the road.

- You can change the order of the sentence for impact and effect.
- Who/what? Be more specific – give precise detail
- Where? What sort of Road? Where was it?
- When? When was this taking place?
- Why? Give it context – why is this interesting?
- How? How exactly is it moving?

At the crack of dawn, the polished, red Ferrari sped erratically along the steep, narrow and winding mountain road. Geoffrey Fox was in a hurry.

Now it's your turn! Use the example above to help you improve this sentence... Make it brilliant not boring!

He opened the door.

