

Thursday 25th June - Lesson 4

L.O. To explore different features of characters

In order to be a villain we know that they have to have a power they can use. All evil villains have character traits that encourage them to do mean things. What character traits would you need to be a successful villain? Write some ideas below. I have given you a couple of examples.

mean

scary

Now choose four character traits and add them to your villain design.