

The Music of the Wind

The wind

makes LOUD music

It roars above the rooftops it drums beneath the floor it howls around the gable-end and rat-a-tats the door

The wind

makes quiet music

It whistles down the chimney it tiptoes through a tree it hums against the window-pane and whispers tunes to me

By Wes Magee