There are 5 different types of sentences we introduce in year 5. Today we will review one of these.

English Sentence Types Best Practice Guidance

Alan Peat's Sentence Types:

Sentence type	Rule	Example
O. (I.)	They are Outside: Inside sentences. They are made up of two related sentences. The first sentence tells the reader a character's outward action and the second reveals their true feelings.	Kate ate the cake that was given to her with enthusiasm and delight. (Inside, however she wished she had turned down the offer.) She smiled at the cheeky little boy. (At the same time, she was hurt by his tricks.)
Noun, which, who, where	Use commas to embed a clause in a sentence, add information that links with the sentence topic and start the clause with which, who or where . (Relative clauses.)	Snakes, which scare me, are not always poisonous. My pet, who only has three legs, loves to chase seagulls. The deserted beach, where the shipwreck was found, can only be reached by sea.
3 bad - question	3 negative adjectives followed by a dash then a question which relates to the 3 adjectives.	Cold, dark, airless – which would kill the spaceman first? Greed, jealousy, hatred – which of these is most evil?
Personification of weather	A type of weather (wind, rain, sun, hail etc) is given a human mood.	The wind stroked the space shuttle gently before lift-off. (=caring) Norman was beaten by the hail. (=attacked/aggressive)
Irony	An irony sentence deliberately overstates how good or bad something is. The overstated word is then shown to be false through the remainder of the sentence which reveals the truth.	Our 'luxury' hotel turned out to be a farm outbuilding! With dawn breaking, the 'beautiful view' which the brochure described, revealed itself to be a scrap-yard and a rubbish tip. The 'trip of our dreams' was, in fact, our worst nightmare.

O. (I.) sentences -Outside. (Inside.) sentences

O. (I.) sentences are made up of 2 related sentences.

The first sentence tells the reader the character's outward actions.

He smiled and shook the man's hand warmly. (Inside, however, he was more angry than he had ever been.)

The second (placed in brackets) shows the characters true INNER feelings.

Anna ate the pudding her mum had baked with delight.
(Inside, however, she wished it was not so burnt.)

He smiled at the mischievous toddler. (At the same time she hoped he would calm down.)

These above O.(I.) sentences are linked.

The first explains what the character's outside actions are and the second reveals the person's real feelings.

Why an author would use this technique?

Look for examples of this when you are reading and reflect on why it has been used.
