		Knowledge Intentions (KI)		KI1: Know who the Tudors were and the time span of the Tudor period in British history
		Interesting facts How did the Tudor Rose come to be? For the best part of a quarter-century, from 1461 to 1485, there was only one royal rose, and it was white: the badge of Edward IV. The roses were actually created after the war by Henry VII. On his marriage, Henry VII adopted the Tudor rose badge conjoning the White Rose of York and the Red Rose of Lancaster.		The Tudors were a Welsh-English family that ruled England from 1485 to 1603. They came to power as a result of the victory of Henry VII over Yorkist king Richard III at the Battle of Bosworth in 1485 (ended the War of the Roses). The Tudor dynasty ended when Henry's grand-daughter Elizabeth I died childless in 1603.
				KI2: Know who Henry VIII was
Henry VIII was the second Tudor monarch after his father, Henry VII. He made many changes to England during his reign as monarch.
KI3: Know about the dissolution of the monasteries
Henry VIII wanted to divorce from his first wife as she hadn't produced a male heir to throne but the Roman Catholic Church refused to agree to this, therefore Henry formed the Church of England. He declared himself the Supreme Head of the Church of England, therefore allowing himself to divorce from his wife.
