

Start

Makes food for the plant from CO₂ and sunlight.

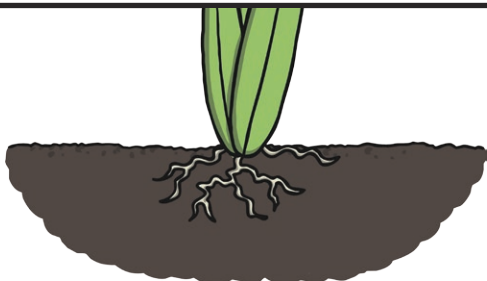

twinkl.com

leaf

They absorb minerals and water from the soil.

twinkl.com

roots

They attract insects to the flower.

twinkl.com

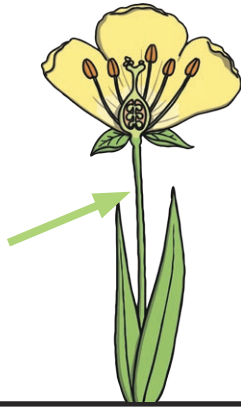

petal

It transports water around the plant.

twinkl.com

stem

It becomes the fruit or seed after fertilisation.

twinkl.com

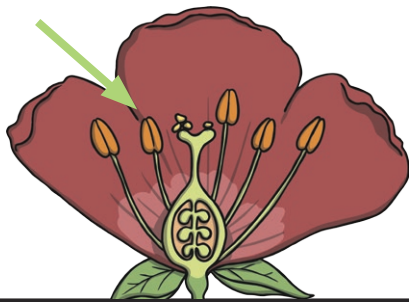

ovule

They release pollen to brush against insects when they land on the flower.

twinkl.com

anther

They protect the flower while it is still growing.

twinkl.com

sepals

Stop

twinkl.com